

Topic	Concept/Goal	Skill	Activity/Resource
COMPUTER TOOLS (HARDWARE)	Identify the computer as a machine that helps people work and play Demonstrate respect for the work of others as related to their "personal space" Demonstrate elementary appropriate practices for the care and use of computers	Use the computer mouse to point, click, double-click, and drag and understand the functional uses of each skill Locate and use letters, numbers, and special keys on a keyboard Organize and manipulate items on a screen using a computer mouse Manipulate a window scrolling toolbar in at least three different ways, to understand the function of a toolbar	Specialized and customizable "K-1 Go Here!" desktop Fully featured Windows XP computers in the Lower School Technology for Learning Lab
SOFTWARE AND TECHNOLOGY RESOURCES	Use software and Internet resources to accomplish both directed and independent learning activities Understand that it takes the talents and hard work of many people to create programs that work, and that those people deserve to be rewarded for their work	Recognize a hyperlink Create a picture and revise it Start a program or execute a hyperlink from a desktop or program window location Adjust volume control in Windows TaskTray Adjust headset volume on headset Place the cursor at a specified location Exit a program	Specialized and customizable "K-1 Go Here!" desktop Fully featured Windows XP computers in the Lower School Technology for Learning Lab Drawing for Children Microsoft Internet Explorer Ever-changing Internet resources
INFORMATION	Realize that an abundance of information is available via computers "safe surfing" Discover interesting new things through self-driven exploration	Group items by different attributes using manipulatives and/or software Arrange a picture story in sequential/linear order Manipulate information and graphic images using a mouse	Microsoft Internet Explorer and ever-changing Internet resources uptoten.com's "UpToTen Premium at School website Specialized and customizable "K-1 Go Here!" desktop

Topic	Concept/Goal	Skill	Activity/Resource
			USN Lower School Webliographer including "safe start" sites